

Dear Sir / Madam:

Perhaps you should do something about the Superbowl half-time show, and these so-called stars should be made aware of their public responsibility to follow the rules and behave in a manner befitting their status? I look forward to the FCC proving to the world that the media has responsibilities as well as rights.

Sincerely,

Paul Newland..... Canadian teacher of children